

The China Adventure – Greater Carlisle Area Chamber of Commerce

April 13 – 21, 2011

OPTIONAL TOURS – To be paid for and booked while in China

1. Hutong Tour in Beijing (USD35/pp)

Hutong is a traditional living area for ordinary Beijing citizens, the history of which dates back to 1000 years ago. Hundreds of thousands of houses of traditional architectural style densely flank both sides of narrow zig-zagging streets in which people live a peaceful and traditional life. Tourists will first board a traditional rickshaw (two per rickshaw) for a Hutong tour, riding through those narrow streets tracing the steps of the historical life of an oriental country. Afterwards, over lunch the tourists will visit local families to learn about their daily lives and sample their Chinese dumplings and other delicious domestic Chinese cuisine. During the two hours Hutong tour tourists will learn a lot about the people and China's traditional and modern life. It is another highlight after the Great Wall.

2. Peking Opera (USD20/pp, USD40/pp for VIP seat)

Peking Opera is the masterpiece of China's traditional culture and art with its birth in Beijing having begun more than three hundreds years ago. The Opera lasts an hour and thirty minutes, covering several different plays – some are full of fighting and some highlight traditional singing and dancing. The show is beautiful with its colorful costumes, impressive facial designs and staging style of oriental culture.

3. Boat Ride on Grand Canal in Suzhou (USD25/pp)

Grand Canal is a pure artificial object completed 1300 years ago by Chinese people. It starts from Beijing and ends up in Hangzhou with a total length of more than 1,000 miles. During the 50 minute boat ride, tourists enjoy the view of both modern and ancient life of Suzhou.

4. Evening Cruise on Huangpu River (USD25/pp)

The cruise will absolutely create an unforgettable impression of Grand Shanghai! The evening view of Shanghai from the cruise is gorgeous, charming and unbeatable.

5. ERA-Intersection of Time-by Cirque du Soleil (USD35/pp)

As a multimillion-dollar acrobatic extravaganza, the first of its kind in China, ERA is a multimedia odyssey whose inspiration is a direct result of the combination of traditional Chinese acrobatic arts and modern technology. Just like Shanghai, ERA evolves through a constant collision between the past and future. ERA is a love story, yet it is also contemplation across the millennia, a fascination with that other dimension man has yet to conquer: time. ERA's acrobats are on a quest to find that tenuous point of balance, the intersection between X, Y and Z. Not only will the audience be amazed by the acrobats' control and precision, they will be enchanted by the world that is created through the use of multimedia, technology, lighting and sound effects, elaborate costumes, original live music and a lot more. As such, ERA can remain universal, without language or cultural barriers. A thousand-year-old gesture is worth a thousand emotions, a thousand images, a thousand words. Allow us to feed your imagination and bring your dreams back to the present.

6. Shanghai Maglev Train (one way ticket USD15/pp, round trip USD25/pp)

Shanghai maglev train, the first commercial rail line of its type in the world, links Metro Line 2 at Longyang Road with the Pudong International Airport by a train traveling at top speed of 431 kilometers per-hour which is much faster than the Bullet Train in Japan. Shanghai Maglev Train takes only 7 minutes and 20 seconds to cover 30 kilometer trip, which currently takes 30 to 40 minutes by driving. Invested with a total amount of 10 billion yuan, it took 2.5 years to complete. Powered by electromagnetism it is suspended in the air when running about 10 millimeters above the track on a magnetic cushion. It brings a speed revolution to the world in ground transportation, and riding on the train will be an exciting experience!

7. The Legend of Kung Fu (USD25/pp)

The Legend of Kung Fu is the a production which combines the elements of kung fu, story-telling, acrobatics, modern dance, and original music to celebrate the philosophy and skill of martial arts. The show tells the story of a young boy, Chun Yi (the pure one), who in order to pursue spiritual and physical harmony is apprenticed as a monk to learn kung fu. Along the way he overcomes obstacles, is distracted and tempted, but ultimately achieves the designation of master who will enlighten the younger generations. Invited by Canada's most experienced cultural brokers, John Cripton of Great World Artists, 'Chun Yi: The Legend of Kung Fu' had its first North America tour from August 2005 to January 2006. During the time, it played 150 performances in Vancouver, Toronto, Reno and other North American cities and won enormous audience admiration.
